Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST – FOI 1098/24 RECTIFICATION OF INACCURATE DATA

I refer to your request for information received by Cumbria Constabulary on 6th December 2024. I note you seek access to the following information:

- To obtain the necessary form to submit to rectify serious errors in a person's police records.

Your request for information has now been considered and I can advise you Cumbria Constabulary does not hold the information you seek, as there is no standard form held, or used, by the Constabulary, for the specific purpose described in your request.

Notwithstanding the above and in anticipation that it may be of interest, I can advise you the UK General Data Protection Regulation contains provisions which include the right for individuals to have inaccurate personal data rectified, or completed if it is incomplete. Whilst the Constabulary does not use a specific form to facilitate requests of this nature, a person who believes the Constabulary may hold inaccurate, or incomplete, personal information about them can request the data is corrected, or completed, by contacting the Constabulary's Data Protection Officer using the details provided below. It is recommended that as much information as possible is provided, about why it is believed information is incorrect or incomplete. Proof of identity may also be required to enable the identity of the person concerned to be verified.
