Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST – FOI 1544/25 Public Order Act 2023 Arrests

I refer to your request for information which was received by Cumbria Constabulary on 25th November 2025. I note you seek access to the following information:

I would like to get data on arrests made under any section of the Public Order Act 2023. Specifically:

- How many arrests were made under the Public Order Act 2023 during protests?
- What did those arrests lead to?
 - No further action
 - Release on bail
 - Release on investigation
 - Charged
- Of the arrests, how many were from an environmental protest (local and/or national/international groups)? It would be ideal if you could mention the protest group every time it is an environmental protest.

Can you please share the data in an excel spreadsheet, giving data for each point mentioned above and for every month between May 2023 and the month when you reply to this.

Your request for information has been considered, and I can advise you that the relevant searches have been conducted and I can confirm that no records were found that meet this request, therefore the response to your request is no information held.

Complaint Rights

If you believe your request has not been properly handled, or you are otherwise dissatisfied with the outcome of your request, you have the right to request an internal review.

In the first instance, please email freedomofinformation@cumbria.police.uk quoting the FOI reference number and explain why you are dissatisfied. Your complaint will be considered and a response will be provided to you after your complaint has been investigated.

If you remain dissatisfied following conclusion of the internal review, you have the right, under section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act, to complain directly to the Information Commissioner.
