Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST – FOI 182/25 Conviction data for stalking offences

I refer to your request for information received by Cumbria Constabulary on the 7th of February 2025. I note you seek access to the following information:

I would like to request access to the following information:

The conviction rate for stalking offences between 2018 and 2025. If possible, please provide the data on a yearly basis and indicate any trends or variations during this period.

Please provide the information via email in electronic form and any data in calendar years.

Your request for information has now been considered and I can confirm that Cumbria Constabulary does not hold information relevant to your request.

The Constabulary's response is no information held as information regarding convictions is not held by the Constabulary. The Crown Prosecution Service and/or the Ministry of Justice may hold this information and may be able to assist you with your request.

Whilst every care has been taken in the retrieval of the information provided, please do not hesitate to contact us for clarification, if you do have any issues or queries relating to this data.

Complaint Rights

If you believe your request has not been properly handled, or you are otherwise dissatisfied with the outcome of your request, you have the right to request an internal review.

In the first instance, please email freedomofinformation@cumbria.police.uk quoting the FOI reference number and explain why you are dissatisfied. Your complaint will be considered and a response will be provided to you after your complaint has been investigated.

If you remain dissatisfied following conclusion of the internal review, you have the right, under section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act, to complain directly to the Information Commissioner.
