Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST – FOI 340/25 – Female victims of Homicide

I refer to your request for information which was received by Cumbria Constabulary on 18th March 2025. I note you seek access to the following information:

Please could you provide us with a list of all female victims of homicide killed between 1 January 2024 and 31 December 2024 (inclusive) which your authority has been responsible for investigating and, for each victim:

- 1. the date of the homicide;*
- 2. the names of the victims and the accused / perpetrator;*
- 3. the age of the victim;*
- 4. the ethnicity/race of the victim;*
- 5. the relationship between the accused and the victim;*
- 6. the sex of the accused / perpetrator;*
- 7. the ethnicity/race of the perpetrator;*
- 8. if identified, the way in which the victim was killed;*

Also, if possible, we would appreciate the following information.

- 9. Whether there were any previous reports from the victim (or any third party) regarding the accused / perpetrator; and*
- 10. Whether there were any previous reports and / or convictions of any other offences related to violence against women perpetrated by the accused / perpetrator.*

Your request for information has now been considered and I can confirm that the information you seek is held by Cumbria Constabulary however, I am not obliged to disclose this to you.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act requires a public authority, when refusing to provide the information requested, to provide a notice which: -

- States that fact,
- Specifies the exemption(s) in question and
- States, if it would not otherwise be apparent, why the exemption applies.

The exemption which applies in this case is Section 21(1) of the Freedom of Information Act – Information Reasonably Accessible by Other Means

This section applies because the information you have requested is already in the public domain, by virtue of being published on the Cumbria Constabulary website and within newspaper reports.
